Product description

Exclusive chess pieces made of exotic padouk wood with a reddish tint and used to produce decorative elements of the Indian boxwood variety.

Adios 4 chess pieces

Paduk is a type of wood known for its durability and deep, rich color. The combination of paduk and boxwood creates a contrasting effect, combining a deep shade with subtle delicacy.

The set includes additional queen figures.

Adios figures have been carefully designed, paying attention to the smallest details. The boxwood finish adds delicacy and aesthetics, creating an elegant whole.

Each figure in this collection has a unique character thanks to the natural patterns of paduk and boxwood. No set is identical, which makes owning such figures a unique experience.

When you invest in Adios 4" paduk and boxwood chess pieces, you are investing not only in playing tools, but also in a unique piece of art that will highlight the uniqueness of each chess game.
