Product description

Another beautiful model from Staunton luxurious pieces collection. One cannot stand indifferently looking on the knight of this model which resembles rather a majestic lion than an ordinary stallion. Compared to other models, this one features marvelously carved knight eyes. They seem to be extremely intelligent and look defiantly at the enemy without any sign of fear. Carefully arranged mane along with the upright ears and a slightly open muzzle make this piece one of the most beautiful at all.

Black pieces are made of padauk (Pterocarpus sandalinus) while the white ones are made of boxwood.

HEIGHT OF KING: 110 mm
