Product description

This model commemorates the great Elvis Presley. The chessmen can possibly overshadow the other luxurious models. The silhouette of kight is pure masterpiece. The amount of details stuns especially in the showcase piece which is always a knight. However the king as well has its own particular design which should be mentioned. His cross is perforated in the middle, let alone the other pieces beautifully finished and polished, shining like jewels. The black pieces were made of ebony and their white equivalents of boxwood.
